AMEGY BANK HOSTS 2019 UNITED WAY DAY OF CARING AT COMMUNITY FAMILY CENTERS

HOUSTON (May 7, 2019) – On Friday, May 3, more than 60 volunteers participated in Amegy Bank’s annual United Way Day of Caring at Community Family Centers (CFC). Through Day of Caring, Amegy volunteers seized the opportunity to see first-hand how their support of United Way creates positive change in the lives of children, families and seniors, making a true difference in the community. Volunteers spent the day gardening, landscaping, pressure washing, painting and assisting with CFC’s Friday food fair. Amegy volunteers served more than 400 families with emergency food assistance during the food fair.

“I really enjoy volunteering for Amegy’s United Way Day of Caring every year, and my favorite part has always been helping with the beautification projects with the mulch crew,” said Amegy Bank Special Assets Support Specialist Denise Tristan. “However, volunteering at CFC this year has been the most meaningful to me. Witnessing the hundreds of families standing in line for food and hearing so many of the clients’ gratitude during the food fair, I was able to see why it is so important to support United Way and how it is making a positive impact in the community.”

About Amegy Bank
