AMEGY BANK CELEBRATES LGBT COMMUNITY AT HOUSTON PRIDE FESTIVAL

HOUSTON (June 28, 2019) — During the month of June, Amegy Bank took part in the annual Houston LGBT Pride Celebration Festival, as part of its continuing Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) efforts. The Houston Pride Festival and Pride Parade attract more than 700,000 people every year from all over the world. These celebrations help increase visibility as a social group and give attendees the opportunity to show support, observe, listen and learn.

For the fifth consecutive year, Amegy has been a supporter of the Houston Pride Festival. Led by Amegy’s LGBT business resource group (BRG) chair Robert Hahn; co-chair Catherine Duyka-Morse; Pride-chair Michael Hickey and executive sponsor George Marshall, Amegy’s LGBT BRG got their rainbows ready and hosted a booth with more than 35 enthusiastic volunteers. “Since 2014, Amegy Bank continues to be the only local bank represented at the Pride Festival, which makes a strong statement of the support and services we provide to the community,” said SVP & Project Management Group Manager Michael Hickey. “It was astounding to see the overwhelming response of colleagues who made it out to network with the community to show our support and share one of our core values – Everyone Counts.”
