AMEGY BANK HELPS CHILDREN IN NEED AT UNDIES FOR EVERYONE WAREHOUSE

HOUSTON (Aug. 2, 2019) — On July 19, a team of Amegy Bank employees spent the day with Undies for Everyone unpacking and sorting 82,800 pairs of underwear to provide children in need with new underwear for the school year. Thousands of elementary and middle school children in our community have parents who struggle to provide basic needs such as food, clothing and shelter. Many students are faced with the obstacle of going to school feeling insecure for not having clean clothes and some may have to go without wearing undergarments.

“When communities, family, and friends unite towards a common cause, the possibilities are endless,” said Amegy Commercial Lending Relationship Manager Khoun Trier. “Undies for Everyone offers a unique program that addresses a basic need, and enhances the self-esteem, dignity, hygiene, and success of disadvantaged children by providing them clean underwear. I feel honored to have played a small part in supporting their mission.”
