AMEGY BANK ANNOUNCES NEW BANKING CENTER IN ARLINGTON, OPENING SUMMER 2024

HOUSTON (April 22, 2024) — Amegy Bank, as part of Zions Bancorporation, N.A., today announced its newest branch opening in Arlington, Texas, located at 3751 Matlock Rd., slated to open in Summer 2024.

Strategically situated in eastern Tarrant County’s thriving corridor between Dallas and Fort Worth, the full-service banking center will support the needs of the fast-growing community, providing families and businesses with top-tier financial solutions and localized, relationship-based service.

“Our native Tarrant County bankers, in-depth community knowledge and local roots position Amegy Bank’s new Arlington banking center to effectively support the growth and prosperity of our Tarrant County neighbors and businesses alike,” said Amegy Bank’s Fort Worth market president, Brandon Bledsoe. “This new banking center marks a major milestone in our North Texas regional expansion plans, and effort to facilitate community access to industry-leading private and commercial banking services.”

The modernized banking center’s 3,134-square-foot design combines retail and commercial banking, complemented by flexible meeting space that accommodates multiple setup options. The banking center will include around 10 offices and workstations, a motor bank and ATM.

Located at 3751 Matlock Rd., Suite #123, Arlington, TX 76015, Amegy Bank’s newest banking center is the first location in Arlington, the third-largest city in the DFW Metroplex, and 12th in DFW. Learn more at amegybank.com or by contacting the Arlington team at (817) 928-5121.
